HIGH-QUALITY PRODUCTION TO BE REWARDED

More than 100 brigades at enterprises of the medical instrument industry are competing for the title, "Outstanding Quality Brigade." The brigade headed by Yarovyy holds first place in competition at the Leningrad Order of Lenin "Krasno-gvardeysk" Plant. This brigade completed the yearly program in June. The brigade headed by Grozdilov, charged with the assembly of complex apparatus, is striving for the high honor.

Twenty-eight brigades are competing for first place at the Gor'kiy Medical Instrument Plant imeni M. Gor'kiy. The best of these is the brigade headed by Gusev, which adopted a progressive method for reconditioning forging and dressing dies. This brigade has already earned the right to check finished production along with the department of technical control.

The mechanics of the brigade headed by Lel'kikh of the "Tekhnolog" plant in Moscow exceeded the norm by 60-80 percent (still retaining high quality) in assembling units of new machines for the glass industry.

Many workers of the Electromedical Equipment Plant "TMA" have also distinguished themselves in competition for high-quality production.

The Ministry of Public Health USSR and the central committees of trade unions for workers in the chemical industry, machine and instrument construction industries, and construction materials industries have stipulated the conditions for plants of the medical industry competing for the titles: "Outstanding Quality Brigade," "Outstanding Quality Section," "Outstanding Quality Shift," and "Outstanding Quality Shop".

The title will be awarded to the collective which systematically turns out only high-quality production, exceeds production norms, saves stocks and materials, and does not receive complaints from consumers, etc.

The winners in the competition will be given a monetary bonus. Members of a brigade which retains the title not less than 6 months will be awarded the medal "Outstanding in Public Health" or honor certificate.
